

Understanding your liquor licence

1. Your current liquor licence or BYO permit must be displayed so public can see it and read it. Failure to do so may result in a penalty exceeding $900.

2. The licence is valid until the end of each calendar year.

3. This is the holder of the licence. The licensee can be a company, partnership, individual or a club.

4. This is your postal address and should be kept up to date. Please notify Liquor Control Victoria (LCV) of any changes at contact@liquor.vic.gov.au

5. States the type of licence and how the licensee can supply liquor.

6. All liquor licences have conditions to ensure the operation of the business does not impact the amenity of the area. Amenity of an area is the quality that the area has of being pleasant and agreeable.

7. This shows the days and hours alcohol can be supplied. Note: Customers have 30-minutes to finish supplied drinks after the end of trading hours (no alcohol is to be sold during this time).

GENERAL INFORMATION
A liquor licence does not override local laws, planning schemes and conditions on planning permits. It is the responsibility of the licensee to ensure they comply with these and all conditions of a planning permit above what is specified on the liquor licence. Where the trading hours on your planning permit are less than the trading hours on this liquor licence, you must comply with the hours on the planning permit.

TYPE OF LICENCE
This licence is a restaurant and cafe licence and authorises the licensee to supply liquor on the licensed premises for consumption on the licensed premises during the trading hours specified below.

RESTAURANT & CAFE CONDITIONS
This licence is subject to the following conditions:
a. the predominant activity carried out at all times on the licensed premises must be the preparation and serving of meals for consumption on the licensed premises; and
b. tables and chairs must be placed in position on the licensed premises so as to be available for at least 75% of the patrons attending the premises at any one time; and
c. the licensee must not permit -
i. the live performance of any musical works; or
ii. the playing of any recorded musical works - on the premises at higher than background music level at any time outside ordinary trading hours.

Condition (c) does not apply to music performed or played on the licensed premises outside ordinary trading hours as part of a function that is held in an area of the premises that is set aside for the exclusive use of persons who have booked a table in that area and their guests, and is attended only by those persons and their guests.

AMENITY
The licensee shall not cause or permit undue detriment to the amenity of the area to arise out of or in connection with the use of the premises to which the licence relates during or immediately after the trading hours authorised under this licence.

SPECIAL CONDITION
The windows facing Brown Street are to be shut and remain shut after 9pm on any day.
