

Stolen Generations Reparations Package

Appointing a Nominated Support Person or Organisation to help you apply

You can give permission for any person or organisation you trust to help you apply for the Package. This person or organisation is called a Nominated Support Person or Organisation.

What can a Nominated Support Person or Organisation do?

A Nominated Support Person or Organisation can:

- provide us with information about your application
- receive information, including personal information, from us about your application
- submit an Application Form on your behalf, but it must be signed by you.

What can't a Nominated Support Person or Organisation do?

A Nominated Support Person or Organisation cannot:

- make decisions about your application
- decide the contents of your Package
- withdraw your application
- sign your application on your behalf.
- receive payments made by the Package; this must be paid directly to you.

Can I change my Nominated Support Person or Organisation?

You can withdraw or change your Nominated Support Person or Organisation at any time by contacting us.

Only one person can be your Nominated Support Person or Organisation at a time.

How do I appoint a Nominated Support Person or Organisation?

To nominate a Support Person or Organisation you must:

- complete a Form Two: Nomination of a Support Person or Organisation, available on our website or by contacting us.
- sign the form and have your signature witnessed by someone who is not your Nominated Support Person or Organisation.
- have your Nominated Support Person or Organisation sign the same form

Your Nominated Support Person must be at least 18 years old.

If you nominate an Organisation, any person at that organisation can perform the tasks of a Nominated Support Person.

If you provide us with a preferred contact person at the Organisation, we will only speak to that person unless they are no longer working for the Organisation, or they are on leave, and it would unreasonably delay your application for us to wait for their return.
